INSTRUCTION

1. A unit is understood as an organizational unit that organizes and implements education, i.e. a faculty, college of studies, college of inter-area individual studies or university-wide organizational unit.
2. Specifying the unit in the position *) excludes the student's passive electoral right in elections to the Students' Parliament of the University of Warsaw in units other than the indicated one.
3. Specifying the field of study in the position ) excludes the student's passive electoral right in elections to a given Council of the Students' Union in other electoral districts than the one appropriate for the indicated field of study.
4. The exclusions specified in point 2. and 3. cease with the validation of the results of the elections in which the student stood as a candidate, but not earlier than on 30 November of the academic year of that candidacy.
